CRANE'S LANDING PUBLIC GOLF COURSE OPENS THIS MAY WITH BETTER THAN EVER PLAYING TURF AND EXCITING NEW CLINICS
A Favorite Chicagoland Public Golf Course Opens the 2018 Golf Season With 14 Newly Seeded Fairways and Announces Summer Programming Featuring both LPGA and PGA Professionals

LINCOLNSHIRE, Ill. (March 20, 2018) – As spring works its way back to the Midwest, Crane's Landing Golf Course at the newly transformed Chicago Marriott Lincolnshire Resort, is pleased to announce its reopening in May with exciting summer clinics for local golf enthusiasts, families, women, and travelers.

Known as a favorite public golf course in the North Shore, Chicagoland area, Crane's Landing offers an array of challenges for both beginning and seasoned golfers alike. The better than ever course recently reseeded 14 of its 18 golf holes with premium bent grass seed, following the 2017 flood. Through this improvement, golfers can look forward to a fair, but challenging course and bountiful green landscape. During opening week in May, Crane's Landing golfers will enjoy a special $25 rate, which includes cart rental.

This season, golf enthusiasts can mark their calendars for three unique golf clinics taking place at the resort:

- Thursday, May 24: Kicking-off its seasonal clinics, Crane's Landing welcomes the LPGA's Jennifer Feldott Hall, as an honorary clinic co-host.
- Thursday, June 21: Local PGA Professional, John Esposito will co-host an interactive golf clinic, in recognition of National Family Golf Month.
- Thursday, July 26: Crane's landing welcomes back PGA Professional John Esposito for a second engaging clinic, for men and women looking to take their golf skills to the next level

“Crane's Landing is a one-of-a-kind public course in the Chicagoland area that has been providing challenges for golfers of all ages and levels, since opening in 1975,” says E.J. Bertke, Director of Golf and PGA Apprentice at Crane's Landing. “We're very pleased with the recovery of the course following 2017's unusually wet season and look forward to hosting golfers all season, in addition to the interactive clinics to help local golfers improve their game - no matter their level of expertise.”

The clinics take place from 5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. and are $20 per attendee.

Each clinic will provide golfers of all levels new techniques they can apply to their game. In addition, expert guests - LPGA's Jennifer Hall and Chicagoland's PGA Professional John Esposito - will be on-hand, alongside Crane's Landing Director of Golf and PGA Apprentice, E.J. Bertke, to help attendees hone their game. Additional details about each clinic can be found at www.craneslandinggolf.com.

For those new to Crane's Landing, the course is a par 70, 18-hole facility that plays all of 6,290 yards. It sits upon 110 acres of preserved woodlands and is a certified Audubon Cooperative Sanctuary. Crane's Landing provides golfers with breathtaking views of undisturbed natural beauty and six holes that run along the Des Plaines River.

Crane's Landing is a public golf course and is open seven days a week from 6:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. The course offers a variety of player and event packages, and three tiers of annual membership, as well as a junior golf membership for those aged 17 and younger.
